The Daily Courant,

Wednesday, December 20. 1721.

London, December 10.
Yesterday arrived & Mail from France.

Madrid, December 9.

THE Court continues its Journey to Lerma; the Royal Family quitted the Road of Bedanga on the 3rd Instant by reason the Small Pox was in that Place, and by at Segovia l'Osma; but the Infants accompanied by the Duchess de Monteflano, and the Household of the Prince of Asturias lay at Arenillas, and went to Segovia the Day following. On the 11 Instant the Duke of Alva set out to attend the Court to Lerma, when the 16th the Pope's Nuncio took the Road of Alcalá for the same Purpose. Advices are received that Cardinal Borgis was embarked at Leghorn on board the Squadron commanded by Don Antonio Serpa, with several Officers, Priests, and other Passengers; there was likewise put on board for the King two fine Coaches, two rich Tables for the Queen, and a great Quantity of Marble. This Squadron sailed the 2d of the last Month from Leghorn and arrived at Segovia on the 19th following, where having landed the Cardinal and his Retinue, it proceeded to Alicante to make the Marble. Letters from Rome give an Account, that Cardinal Aquaviva sending the Count de Cossi to Cardinal Althan, desiring him to use his good Offices with the Emperor for the Release of some Spaniards of Quality who are kept Prisoners in the Kingdom of Naples and ill used without Reason, adding that his Catholic Majesty interesteth himself in their Entertainment; Cardinal Althan answered, it was no time to treat the Spaniards after that Manner, because they daily rendered themselves unworthy the Emperor's Clemency: This Answer very much irritated Cardinal Aquaviva, and he immediately sent away a Courier to give this Court an Account of it, in order that the Imperial Minister may be called upon to give a reason for his Contempt of his Catholic Majesty's Representations, and explain himself as to the Terms of his Answer.

Dec. 10. For these three Months past the King has applied himself studiously to his Study in the Military Art, the Marquis de Prado being General in the Armies, being appointed by the Duke Regent to give his Majesty Lessons instructing him in that Art. The great Feast which Prince Dolmerry intended, to make having been put off several times, it was at last given on the 21st Instant, the Duke of Bourbon, and the Prince of Conty being present at it, together with several Lords of the first Rank; the next Day he treated the foreign Ministers, and the third Day the Citizens. Mademoiselle Durand, aged 16 Years, Niece to Mademoiselle de la Mothe of the French Academy, and Wife to M. Durand Advocate to the Queen, was brought to Bed on the 20th Instant, of two Sons and a Daughter, who were all baptised the same Day in the Parish of St. Landry, but they lived only three Days.

Dec. 10. It is said the Duke d'Osma being perfectly satisfied with the Reception he has met with this Court, has desired the King his Master to let him continue here some time in the Quality of Ambassador Extraordinary, and upon the same Post to the Spanish Duke of Alva; this also shall be well made. Turn to Madrid, and return hither shortly with his Lady. The Duke of Montferrat having retired to the Seminary of His, in order to spend the remainder of his Life in Devotion, the King has given his Regiment to M. Pecquigny Brother to the Duke of Guimara. A Courier arrived here some Days ago from Rome, with Advice that the Cardinal de Rohan was to set out for Paris the 17th Instant; and that the Abbot Tissier would remain there some time to take Care of the Affairs of France. Tis said the King will give up the latter the Archibishopric of Belengon after his return Home.

Acertain Care for FOUNDER'D HORSES, by an excellent Chymical Secret, which immediately takes away all Pains and Anguish in their Feet, and all burning Heat, and passing Dryness, suppling and cooling them to Admiration, and causing them to become kindly moist and easy, and the Hoof to grow naturally wide, so as not to pinch them, making those Horses that before could scarce stand, or when they did, load all with their four Feet crumpling up together, able to stand and tread out freely and boldly, without the least Pain, Uneasiness, or Lameness: Those that are a little hot in the r. Feet, it presently sets up and recovers; and those exceeding bad, it effectually cures in a short Time, making them as perfectly firm and sound in their Feet as ever. The Author has for many Years past experienced. It is to be had only at Mr. Bell's, a Bookseller, at the Cross Keys and Bible in Cornhill, and Stock's-Market, at s. 6 d. a Glass, with Directions.

The only true and original Royal Chymical Wash-Balls for the Hands and Face, are removed from Mr. Leibert's, the Glovers, to prevent the Publick's being imposed on by Counterfeits, which are not only ineffectual, but may also prove dangerous, and are now sold only at Mr. Alcock's Toyshop, at the blue Coat Boy, against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, and at Mrs. Giles, Milliner, next Herneion Pillars Alley by the Temple. They have above these Twenty Years been largely experienced, and highly commended for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be parallel'd by either Wash, Powder, Cosmetick, &c. being indeed real Beautifiers of the Skin, taking off all Deformities, Tatters, Ring Worms, Morphew, Sun-burn, Scurf, Pimples, &c. of Redness of the Small-pox, keeping it of a lasting and certain Whiteness. They soon alter red or rough Hands, are admirable in shaving the Head, not only giving a more exquisite Sharpness to the Raze, but to comfort the Brain and Nerves as to prevent cutting Coids. They are of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without all least Grain of Mercury. price 1 s. each.
